Dear Muncy Family:

This is Craig Skaluba, Superintendent of Muncy School District, letting you know that this morning the school district received notification that a Muncy Jr. / Sr. High student has tested positive for COVID-19. The Department of Health is completing all contact tracing and the school district will follow our Health and Safety Plan and any additional recommendations provided by the Department of Health. Please note our health and safety plan requires us to take every measure to maintain confidentiality. As always, please let us know if you have any questions or concerns.

Craig
