UPDATED TRAVEL EXEMPTIONS

Please see below for updated exemptions related to the state's travel order. Changes from the original order are highlighted in yellow below for your review.

- Section 4: Exemptions: The following individuals are exempt from this Order but shall conduct travel with attention to physical distancing, wearing of face coverings, and frequent hand hygiene when in contact with other individuals:
 - Individuals traveling to and from the Commonwealth for the purposes of work.
 - Individuals traveling to and from the Commonwealth for medical reasons, including individuals providing comfort and support to the patient.
 - Individuals who are returning to the Commonwealth after traveling outside of the Commonwealth for less than 24 hours.
 - Military personnel traveling to the Commonwealth by order or directive of a state or Federal military authority. This includes military personnel returning to the Commonwealth after traveling outside of the Commonwealth by order or directive of a state or Federal military authority.
 - Individuals in transit through the Commonwealth to another destination, provided that the time spent in the Commonwealth is only the amount of time necessary to complete the transit, make use of travel services, such as a highway rest stop, or make any necessary travel connection.
 - Individuals traveling to comply with a court order (including child custody).
 - Additional exemptions may be issued in guidance documents issued by the Department.
 - The exemptions in this Section do not apply to travelers who, within the previous fourteen days, attended gatherings larger than those permitted by the Commonwealth.

Stay Safe, Stay Healthy, Stay Strong!

Sincerely,

Craig
